Hampton-Court, October 14.

AN humble Addreſs of the Univerſity of St. Andrews, has been preſented to His Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of Athol, Chancellour of that Univerſity; which His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Madrid, Oct. 4. The freſheſt Advices we have from Sardinia tell us, the Siege of Cagliari is ſtill continued. Supplies of Proviſions and Ammunition have been ſent from Barcelona, to the Forces employed in that Siege; but all other military Preparations which were making in ſeveral Ports, are ordered to be ſtopt; at Cadiz particularly, eight Men of War with Tranſports having Troops on board and a good Number of Horſes, have been countermanded. Cardinal Alberoni has been very ill of a Fever, but is now on the mending Hand. The Court continues at the Eſcurial.

Berne, Oct. 13. The Chancellour of this State, who went lately to Neuveville to put in Execution a Convention made between him and a Commiſſioner of the Biſhop of Baſil, concerning the Privileges of the Inhabitants of that Town, is returned, having intirely finiſhed all Matters of Diſpute, and re-eſtabliſhed a good Underſtanding between the ſaid Biſhop and this Canton. A great Number of Anabaptiſts, which were baniſhed ſome Years ago out of this Canton for Life, being returned without Leave, have been lately impriſoned here. The Sovereign Council has been ſeveral Times aſſembled, to deliberate what to do with thoſe People; but the Vintage Seaſon, which is now begun, having produced a Vacation in all Buſineſs here, and a Prorogation of the Sovereign Council for ſome Weeks, the Deciſion of that Affair is put off till the next Meeting of the ſaid Council. Mr. Dayrolle, His Britannick Majeſty's Miniſter lately reſiding at Geneva, is expected here to Morrow in his Way to Baſil, where he is to imbark on the Rhine for Holland. Letters from Milan of the 5th Inſtant tell us Advice was come thither that Cagliari ſtill held out. The Governour of the Milaneze continued to put Milan and the other fortified Places of that Dutchy into a good Poſture of Defence. 'Tis adviſed from Turin, that the King of Sicily's Troops continue in their Quarters, and that there was no Talk of their moving. The Senate of Chamberry has given Sentence for Contumacy againſt the Republick of Geneva, upon an old Diſpute about the Right of collecting Tithes in a ſmall Place in their Neighbourhood, notwithſtanding the Letter lately ſent to the Court of Turin in their Favour by the Proteſtant Cantons.

Venice, Oct. 8. Letters from Bologna tell us, the Pope pretends to diſown that the ſiezing the Earl of Peterborow, and confining him in the Caſtle of Urbano, was by any Authority from him, and has ſent Order for his being ſet at Liberty; but his Lordſhip refuſes to ſtir from thence, till he has received from Great Britain the King his Maſter's Commands. The Lords Burford and Naſſaw-Paulet have left Rome, and came to Florence on the 30th paſt, in order to return to England by the Way of France. The End of laſt Month a Convoy, with Proviſions, Recruits and Money, ſailed for Dalmatia; and next Week another will be ready to ſail. The Fleet of this Republick is now at Zant, and that of the Turks in the Sea of Sapienza. Orders are ſent to Sig. Mocenigo at Verona, to entertain the Electreſs-Dowager Palatine, in her Paſſage from Duſſeldorp to Florence.

Vienna, Oct. 9. The Repartition of the Winter-Quarters is already gone from hence, by which 26 Battallions, 7 Regiments of Horſe, and 6 of Hu[illegible]ars, are appointed to garriſon Belgrade and the other Places upon that Frontier: The reſt of the Army is to be quarter'd
